church is church right well not so much as any baptist teen will find when visiting a friend's episcopal church or any lutheran visitor to a pentecostal service will discover so what's the difference why are there any differences at all though churches are as individual as the members they serve katie meier clears up some of the confusion regarding the basic christian denominations written for everyday teens rather than say theology majors this guide clearly spells out the unique qualities of each sect while at the same time underlines the unifying principles of christian faith practically it takes the scare out of accompanying a friend to a different church but even better and maybe more importantly it inspires a greater understanding of and love for fellow christians contrary to jesus' wish that his followers may all be one christianity has become over time ever more schismatic this concise one volume dictionary provides information on over a thousand significant denominations and movements ranging from the mainstream historical churches for example roman catholic and orthodox to heretical sects that flourished briefly in the third or fourth centuries to groups that sprang up around charismatic leaders in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries alternatives names are given at the end of entries and are cross referenced in an appendix such groups include the delightfully named body felt salvation church in the torres strait islands with 300 members and the old catholic orthodox church founded in london by and apparently for the most reverend james bartholomew banks known to his friends as piggy on account of the happy conjunction of his vast inherited wealth and his surname the author approaches what might in other hands be a dull catalogue with considerable zest and obvious enjoyment and the result is a mine of good stories and useful information this history of the origins and development of christian denominations is in laymans language readers will not become bogged down in technical or archaic terms begin by reading about the christian groups denominations that developed in the time between jesus' crucifixion and the formal origins of the roman catholic and orthodox churches learn how the roman empire came to accept christianity as its religion of the cooperation and struggles between the roman catholic and orthodox churches and how that led to their separation read about how the black death the crusades the struggles within the roman catholic church led some church leaders such as martin luther to attempt to reform the church and how those attempts led to the reformation that opened the door to england declaring that the church of england the anglican church is the true christian church john calvin laid the ground work for what became the presbyterian and the reformed churches then came the huguenots and the walloons and the puritan pilgrims who came to america and evolved into such as the congregationalists back in england the quakers experienced persecution that encouraged them to move to america john wesley began what evolved into methodism the american revolution caused american churches of english origin to separate from their english roots and to become such as the episcopalians and the methodists read about the history of the many denominations that have come into being in the united states there are the numerous christian churches the unitarians spiritualist churches mormons adventists jehovahs witnesses christian science pentecostalism and many independent non denominational churches it is fascinating history and all in laymans language this book deals with the causes that led to the formation of so many denominations the main reason behind this is the misinterpretation of the word of god initial faith was purely catholic based upon the church founded by the disciples of christ but when it became the roman catholic church the drawbacks started surfacing in the church so the believers thought of other groups and sects and they started leaving the roman catholic church and formed other denominations behind all this was the human factor of pope at that time whatever i got from my study i have tried to write about the different denominations religious institutions values and identities are fundamental to understanding the lived experiences of canadians in the nineteenth and early twentieth century christian churches and their peoples an inter denominational study considers how christian churches influenced the social and cultural development of canadian society across regional and linguistic lines by shifting their focus beyond the internal dynamics of institutions nancy christie and michael gauvreau address broad social issues such as the ways in which religion is linked to changing mores the key role of laypeople in shaping churches and the ways in which first nations peoples both appropriated and resisted missionary teachings with an important analysis of popular religious ideas and practices christian churches and their peoples demonstrates that the cultural authority and regulatory practices of religious institutions both affirmed and opposed the personal religious values of canadians ultimately facilitating their elaboration of personal ethnic gender and national identities
